

granting the G-20 more universal legitimacy, a recurring item on the report of the Chair of the G-20 on work carried out that year should be added to the Assembly's agenda. Presentation of the report of the G-20 would then be followed by a substantive debate, resulting in the adoption of a resolution.