The Permanent Mission of Saudi Arabia to the United Nations presents its compliments to His Excellency the United Nations Secretary General and wishes to convey the Government of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia's views regarding the Report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations in Global Governance (A/65/94) which was issued on 08 December 2010 entitled "The United Nations in Global Governance".

The competent authority in Saudi Arabia suggests that the Report of the Secretary-General before the 65th Regular Session of the U.N. General Assembly focus on the following:

- Financial crisis and the need for global governance and transparency, and effective measures on the part of all parties to avoid the occurrence of such crisis, and creation of global mechanisms under the United Nations to oversee the work of international financial institutions and funds.

- Strengthening the role of the United Nations in the work of the G20 in the reform of the global financial system.

- The necessity for the Report to reflect the position of the Group of 77 and China on these topics.

- The necessity to strengthen the role and authority of the United Nations in support of technology in developing countries, and follow up the implementation of the obligations of developed countries in this part, paying particular attention to creating employment opportunities for youth.
