National governments play a key role in the implementation of the 2030 Agenda, and also bear responsibility for its success. However, governments cannot succeed alone. We need cooperation with all stakeholders; and we have to strengthen and build new public-private partnerships. Participatory and inclusive implementation are crucial. For example, empowerment of women is needed also in energy and forest sector. In this context, I would also like to mention a side event Finland is hosting at the UN Forum on Forests in May on
