

AMBASSADOR FATIMA KYARI MOHAMMED
Permanent Observer of the African Union to the United Nations

CLOSING REMARKS
HIGH-LEVEL POLITICAL DIALOGUE

Africa Dialogue Series 2022

Socio-Economic Development

27 May 2022

Excellencies, Dear Colleagues, Distinguished Ladies and Gentlemen

- It is a great honor for me to deliver the closing remarks at the high-level policy dialogue of the Africa Dialogue Series 2022.
- Let me start by thanking the leadership and the teams of the Office of Special Adviser on Africa, the Alliance for a Green Revolution in Africa, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, World Food Programme, International Labour Organization, UN Economic Commission for Africa, and the AUDA-NEPAD for their excellent support and continued partnership; and for the tireless efforts to make the 2022 edition of Africa Dialogue series a success.
- The aim, in this ADS session, was to promote the achievement of the first Aspiration of Agenda 2063, which envisions a prosperous Africa based on inclusive growth and sustainable development, as well as its key goal, which aims to ensure a continent of healthy and well-nourished citizens. This Aspiration of Agenda 2063 is directly linked with Sustainable Development Goal 2, which aims to end hunger and malnutrition by 2030 and ensure sustainable food production systems.
- silience
in nutrition and food security on the African continent: Strengthening agro-food systems, health, and social protection systems for the acceleration of human,
- For an entire month, a number of activities were organised, including Interactive discussions, knowledge sharing, and development of knowledge products. The organizers collectively

Finally, I wish to conclude by thanking all speakers, panelists, and discussants who have enriched the ADS debate with their views, observations, and brilliant interventions in the interviews and the webinars during the past four weeks and to thank the audience who have interacted with us on the social media and provided critical comments, and to thank all of you for joining us in this event.

I thank you for your kind attention!

Looking forward to See all of in the Africa Dialogue Series 2023.

