Speech of the President of the Nation, Dr. Alberto Fernández

I would like to thank the Secretary General of the United Nations, the Prime Minister of

The International Monetary Fund has given more space to unconventional monetary policies and fiscal stimuli, which contribute to effectively address the fall in activity and the jump in unemployment and poverty.