

competitive food value chains; healthy food environments and food safety; clean water, sanitation and good hygiene; and the provision of social assistance.

2. Cambodia will work towards the creation of the national food systems strategy in food systems, aiming for food security, nutrition, and food systems resilience and climate change resilience.
3. Cambodia will address chronic and compounding vulnerabilities to strengthen resilience to shocks and stresses, and to climate change, natural disasters or extreme events.
4. Cambodia will continue to open the door to foreign investment in the agricultural sector.