

FACT SHEET
AIR POLLUTION AND HEALTH

- Exposure to air pollution is estimated to cause seven million premature deaths and result in the loss of millions more healthy years of life, predominantly in low and middle-income countries.
- Transport is one of the single largest contributors to air and carbon pollution emissions globally, also accounting for about 64% of total oil consumption and 27% of all energy use.
- Transport