

Mr. Chairman,

My delegation had the honour of attending the briefing given by the Committee on Information yesterday. That important meeting gave the Chinese delegation an opportunity to acquaint itself with the important role played by the Department of Public Information (DPI) in publicizing the UN to the outside world for a better understanding of and support for the UN's work. Most of the Member States are satisfied with the results that the DPI has achieved in

