

Photo: Mathew Elavanalthoduka/UNMIL

Background
Liberia

provision, States parties also bind themselves to take into account the particular problems faced by rural women, to eliminate discrimination against them and ensure that they

(provincial, local), as well as other branches of Government to monitor progress in implementation of the Convention; and Convention in implementing the Convention. Opportunities for inter-sectoral collaboration as well as collaboration with the international community, and with civil society, will be discussed.