

The Permanent Representative of Indonesia and The Permanent Representative of Australia in collaboration with The Partners of the Interagency Working Group (IAWG) on Reproductive Health in Crises invite you to attend

The New York launch of the *Interagency Field Manual on Reproductive Health in Humanitarian Settings

Monday February 28, 2011 from 11:30 AM - 12:45 PM
Conference Room A, North Lawn Building, United Nations, New York

Panelists:

H.E. Mr. Hasan Kleib
Ambassador - Permanent Mission of Indonesia to the United Nations

H.E. Mr. Gary Quinlan
Ambassador - Permanent Mission of Australia to the United Nations

Ms. Purnima Mane
Deputy Executive Director, UNFPA

Ms. Sandra Krause
Reproductive Health Program Director, Women's Refugee Commission

Dr. Grace Kodindo
Assistant Professor, Mailman School of Public Health - Columbia University

Please RSVP by 18 February to Abigail Gacusana at abigailg@wrcommission.org

When you respond, please confirm whether or not you have a UN ground pass

Life does not stop during a crisis.

Reproductive Health is an essential component of a humanitarian response.

The 2010 edition of the Interagency Field Manual on Reproductive Health in Humanitarian Settings is an essential resource for reproductive health officers, programme managers and service providers.

Developed in collaboration with over 100 stakeholders, the manual equips reproductive health practitioners with the technical guidance and practical examples they need to address reproductive health needs in humanitarian emergencies.

