Violence Against Women

11 March 2013

Madam Chair, Excellencies, Distinguished Participants

Violence against women persists all around the globe. It is not only a grave violation of human rights but an impediment to social and economic development and productivity. It has enormous direct and indirect costs both for the victim

Women-friendly administrative mechanisms have to be put in place.

Collective response and coordinated efforts of all actors in delivering multisectoral services must be strengthened.

- Engaging and building partnership with men and boys, community leaders at grassroot level and forge alliance.

Building disaggregated database.

Bangladesh has adopted a whole range of multisectoral service approach to prevent
