

Madam President,

On March 05th, 2013, the peoples of the world received with great pain the sad news of the death of the leader of the Bolivarian Revolution, President Hugo Chávez Frías. World leader in the fight for justice, champion in the defense of human rights,

During his term in office the following Acts were adopted: the Organic Law on the Right of Women to a Life Free of Violence; the Law of Equal Opportunities; the Law

The legacy of Hugo Chávez Frías will be perpetuated in the heart of those who fight for social justice, peace and equality to reign in the world. His eternal soul will be immortalized in history, inspiring new epics in order to build the great, free and sovereign Our American nation that we dream.

I thank you, Madam President.