Statement by the Vice-President of the Economic an Bocial Council H.E. Mr. Ferit Hoxha, Permanent Representative of the Republic of Albania 57th session of the Commission on the Status of Wenn

Monday, 4 March 2013, 10 a.m. (General Assembly Hall

Mme Chair,

Commission on the Status of Women. It is hetartsering at so many of you have assembled at UN Headquarters with one common goal: the elimination against women and girls and ensure women s empowerment.

Efforts to promote gender equality and the employfermomen are central to global economic and social development. Indeed, weekednay aware of the intrinsic linkages between gender equality and the realization of the intrinsic linkages between gender equality and the realization of the intrinsic linkages between gender equality and the realization of the intrinsic linkages between gender equality and the realization of the intrinsic linkages between gender equality and the realization of the intrinsic linkages between gender equality and the realization of the intrinsic linkages between gender equality and the realization of the intrinsic linkages between gender equality and the realization of the intrinsic linkages between gender equality and the realization of the intrinsic linkages between gender equality and the realization of the intrinsic linkages between gender equality and the realization of the intrinsic linkages between gender equality and the realization of the intrinsic linkages between gender equality and the realization of the intrinsic linkages are the intrinsic linkages between gender equality and the realization of the intrinsic linkages are the intrinsic linkages and development goals as well as maintenance of peace and security. Our was kained in the intrinsic linkages are the intrinsic linkages.

The Economic and Social Council fully recogneizes number in the Commission on the Status of Women in helping us all to comply withnown responsibility. The Commission has a strong track record of important achievelheed of its successes in promoting gender equality and women s empowed memory, being a catalyst that creates opportunities across the intergovernment at land the land t

One example of this catalytic role is the Consmission input to the Council's Annual Ministerial Review. This year, the Council owill of Science, technology and innovation, and the potential of culture, for promoting bleus desire lopment and achieving the Millennium Development Goals. I have no doubthet have tion-oriented recommendations of the Commission from 2011 on gender equaliting is science and technology will greatly enrich our ministerial deliberations and abdition in

Starting this year annotherists, ECOSOC will devote special attentifien revoietw and assessment of the provisions of the resolution Counadrennial Comprehensive Policy Review of the Operational Activities United Nations, including those pertaining to the enhancement of the gender mainstreaming, not across the United Nations, and